Statement by South Carolina Attorney General Henry McMaster On New State Unemployment Figures

Columbia – “This is no time to play the blame game. We’re facing an historic crisis. It’s time to stop the infighting and work together for a change.

With the resources, the talent, and the assets we have in South Carolina, there is absolutely no excuse for us to have one of the highest jobless rates in the nation.

What we desperately need is cooperative leadership and an aggressive new focus on free enterprise, tax reform, job creation, and economic development. If we do that, then once again South Carolina can lead the nation in economic opportunity.”
