Thank you for registering for this training. Please read this letter in its entirety for important information regarding this training. If you registered more than one individual, please be sure to disperse a copy of this letter to each person who is registered.

OBJECTIVE

The Office of the Attorney General and the Criminal Justice Academy aim to educate all of those who work with domestic violence cases on the latest issues, techniques, and laws regarding Criminal Domestic Violence. To that end, this training is designed for those who work in the criminal justice system. Anyone is welcome to attend; however, all should understand the aim and concept of this training.

ATTENDANCE

If you are no longer planning to attend this training, please notify this office (803-734-3745) immediately. If you must leave early from the training, please be aware that you may not be granted full credit for attendance. Please notify someone from this office on the day of the training if you are leaving early so that we can make plans accordingly.

SIGN-IN

Sign-in will begin at 8:30 a.m. Each of you will need to sign in at the beginning of the training and following lunch. Judges and attorneys must provide their bar/judge numbers to receive appropriate credit. Please be prepared to provide that information on the day of the training.

DIRECTIONS

The address of the training is provided above; you are responsible for your own directions.

LUNCH

We will not be providing lunch at this training. Please note that there is only one hour allotted for lunch and plan accordingly. We will begin after lunch promptly at 1:00 p.m.

AGENDA

An agenda for this training is attached. Please bring materials necessary for note taking (i.e. pens, paper, etc).

CERTIFICATES

Certificates will be mailed to you within two weeks following the training.

If we can be of any assistance prior to this training, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to seeing you on April 19th.

Sincerely,
