Blacksburg Man Arrested on Child Pornography Charge

(COLUMBIA, S.C.) South Carolina Attorney General Alan Wilson announced the arrest of Nathaniel Leron Jordon (DOB: 1987) of Blacksburg, S.C., on one (1) charge connected to sexual exploitation of minors. The Cherokee County Sheriff's Office, a member of the Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force, made the arrest.

Investigators discovered child pornography after searching the defendant's residence.

Jordon was arrested on May 4, 2016. He is charged with one (1) count of Sexual Exploitation of a Minor, Third Degree (§16-15-410), a felony offense punishable by up to ten (10) years imprisonment on each count.

The case will be prosecuted by the Attorney General's Office.

Attorney General Wilson stressed all defendants are presumed innocent unless and until they are proven guilty in a court of law.
