Dear Ms. Morganstein:

In response to your request of April 20 as clarified by Mr. McCall's letter of April 26, I can advise you that there does not appear to be any legislation in this State concerning the posting of privately owned property.

Oftentimes a property owner who desires to clarify the boundaries of a particular parcel of land will have a survey made. The plat of this survey can be filed in the Clerk of Court's Office, or in some counties the register of mesne conveyances, thereby giving notice to others as to perimeters of the parcel.

I hope that this is responsive to your request.

Very truly yours,

Cameron B. Littlejohn, Jr.
Staff Attorney
