Dear Beau,

I apologize for the delay in returning your correspondence concerning the above-referenced case. I have been out of the Office steadily for the last month and am now attempting to catch up on my paperwork,

I have discussed this matter with Bob Wells of this Office, and agree with you that there was a continuance granted. This being the case, I would ask Solicitor Jones by copy of this letter to reopen the case. If I am not mistaken we held the indictment back and sent it along with the other continued cases to the Solicitor's Office. I regret that this happened but it was a matter of lack of communication.

It appears from Chief Justice's Lewis Order of July 2, 1976, that the next term of General Sessions Court in Newberry County would commence September 20.

With kindest regards, I am
Very truly yours,

Cameron B. Littlejohn, Jr.
Saaff Attorney
