Dear Mr. Ellisor:

Your letter of April 17, 1972, requesting an opinion concerning the disposition, if any, that should be made of payment to State employees for jury service has been received.

I have not been able to locate any specific statute concerning the matter and do not believe the State has authority to dispose of these payments in the absence of statutory authority allowing the same.

If you have any suggestions in this matter, please let me know and I will be glad to consider them.

Very truly yours,

Edwin B. Brading
Assistant Attorney General
