1 RE: Requested Attorney General's Opinion

J. Lewis Cromer, Esquire
Richland County Attorney
Post Office Box 192
1701 Main Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29202

Dear Mr. Cromer:

You have asked the opinion of this office on whether the law prohibits the son-in-law of a county council member from serving as a law clerk in your office. I can find no such prohibition.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this office that no law prohibits the son-in-law of a county council member from serving as a law clerk in the county attorney's office.

Sincerely,

Eugene W. Yates, III
Assistant Attorney General
