Dear John:

I have examined the materials forwarded to me with your letter of June 9, 1982, requesting the opinion of this Office whether the Division of Economic Opportunity should approve a request from Midlands Human Resources Development Commission to pay overtime to Ms. Dina Price in the sum of $791.58 for documented overtime work by her from January 5, 1981, through June 20, 1981, in the administration of the Home Energy Assistance Program. Some 32 hours of a total of 150.5 hours were taken in compensatory time, therefore Ms. Price has requested payment for 118.5 hours of overtime.

We have examined the file documents, including the copy of the HEAP Agreement between the State Economic Opportunity Office and Midlands and in our opinion it would be proper to authorize payment of this overtime from HEAP grant funds remaining and unspent.

Please call if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Frank K. Sloan
Deputy Attorney General
