Dear Mr. Adams:

I am in receipt of your recent letter. You have inquired what and where candidates must now file in light of various statutes concerning filing which were repealed during the 1979 Legislative Session. The provisions that have been repealed are South Carolina Code of Laws, 1976, Sections 7-11-230, 7-11-240 and 7-11-250. The provisions that remain concerning notice of candidacy and pledge are 7-11-210 and 7-11-220. These statutes specifically set out what forms are required and where they should be filed.

If I can be of further assistance, please inform me.

Very truly yours,

Treva G. Ashworth
Senior Assistant Attorney General
