Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

October 26, 1977

*1 Honorable Larry L. Koon
Member
House of Representatives
Route 7
Box 72-P
Lexington, South Carolina 29072

Dear Mr. Koon:

You have inquired whether the Legislature has taken any recent action prohibiting counties from assisting persons in paving private driveways which lead off county roads. I am aware of no legislation within the last two years which has changed the law on this subject. Enclosed are two recent opinions from this office on the subject.

With kind regards,

Karen LeCraft Henderson
Assistant Attorney General
