Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

February 10, 1975

*1 Mr. J. Lee Foster
Prosperity Police Department
Prosperity, South Carolina 29127

Dear Mr. Foster:

You have inquired as to the minimum age requirement for a police officer. It appears that you may employ any person otherwise qualified who is at least eighteen years of age. [Ref. Art. 17, Sec. 1, Constitution of South Carolina, as to reason for minimum age of eighteen.] I have reference to an opinion from this Office of August 6, 1974, in which the views expressed above were firmly held. Please find enclosed herein a copy of that opinion.

Sincerely,

Herman L. Moore
Law Clerk
