Dear Bate:

I am attaching herewith an amendment which would have the effect of placing persons sixty-five years and younger on the jury lists for service as jurors.

Such persons are not included on the jury lists at the present time because of an amendment to the statute in 1974 which eliminated any maximum age requirement for jury service.

If this amendment is adopted, persons sixty-five years and older would be placed on the jury lists; but if they are chosen, they could claim an exemption from service under Section 38-104.

At the present time, persons, irrespective of maximum age, are placed on the jury lists. The amendment would limit persons on the juries to sixty-five years and under.

Very truly yours,

Daniel R. McLeod
Attorney General
