The Silent Witness Story

In 2017, 40 South Carolinians were killed by their intimate partners. As citizens of this state, we have a responsibility to take a stand against this injustice. Therefore, in 1998 our state joined with more than 40 other states in a mission "to promote peace, healing and responsibility in adult relationships."

During the 21st annual Silent Witness ceremony, wooden silhouettes represent the women and men who have died due to domestic violence in South Carolina in 2017. This year, there are 41 silhouettes; 29 are for the known female homicide victims, 11 are for the known male victims, and one represents those victims of whom we are unaware.

The South Carolina Attorney General's Office, through the S.T.O.P. (Services, Training, Officers, and Prosecutors) Violence Against Women program, hosts this annual remembrance. Other contributing citizens and organizations are acknowledged at the end of this book.

This book is dedicated to the women and men of South Carolina
who lost their lives
due to domestic violence in 2017.*

---

*The stories in this book were compiled using incident reports from local law enforcement and data from the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division. All defendants are presumed innocent unless and until they are proven guilty in a court of law.

I'm battered but I'm not broken
I still have strength to go on.

I'm trying to find a way out of this
But I feel all alone
I want to be whole again
Because lately all I do is cry.
There's so much living I have to do
So, I don't want to die.

I seek justice but it eludes me
I pray some day I'm heard.
He's silenced me for so long
I dared not speak a word.
I want to leave this life behind
But, I fail each time I try.
I want a life where I'm free to live
No, I don't want to die.

Black eyes and bruises are customary
I'm tired of living this way.
I want a future that's free of pain
I'm tired of living this way.
I want a future that's free of pain
I'm looking forward to a better day.
I've got so much hope inside
I want to spread my wings and fly.
There's so much I have to live for
So, I don't want to die.

I'm going to fight to free myself
From this life I'm living in.
I'll stand tall in spite of it all
This battle I'm going to win.
I'm looking ahead, not going to look back
I know somehow I'll get by
There's so much more life has in store
No, I don't want to die.

Unknown

Domestic violence affects us all.

Domestic violence does not discriminate by gender, race or ethnicity. People in every socioeconomic status experience this type of violence. Domestic violence victims are all around us: in our neighborhoods, workplaces and our places of worship.

Therefore, let us have a moment of silence to remember those victims of whom we are unaware.

Silent Witness Information

The South Carolina Office of the Attorney General works diligently throughout the year to collect information about domestic violence homicides. This is the 21st year the office has held the Silent Witness Memorial during October to recognize the victims of this horrific crime.

The information for the Silent Witness Memorial is compiled with the assistance and cooperation of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (SLED) and the offices of South Carolina solicitors, sheriffs, coroners, and police departments.

Every effort is made to contact the victims' families. The loved ones of these victims provided the photographs found in this book.

500 books printed at $5.37 each, total cost of $2,683.80.
