Dear Chief Townsend:

As per our telephone conversation of Tuesday, February 26, 1974, it is permissible for one who has violated a traffic law to be tried in his absence, sentenced and have the sentence suspended. This procedure may be carried out regardless of the fact that the case is four to five months old.

If this office may be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Yours very truly,

M. Elizabeth Crum
Staff Attorney
