Oliver S. Nealy
Chief of Police
Pickens, South Carolina 29671

Dear Chief Nealy:

In answer to the question you posed, relating to parking on private property, it is clear that it is unlawful for an individual to park on private property without the permission of the owner, which would relate both to a shopping center and to a service station. If the individual persist in parking there, his automobile may be removed at his own expense, and should he not pay the towing charge his automobile may be sold to the highest bidder. I have enclosed a copy of Section 46-807 of the 1973 Cumm. Supp. of the Code of Laws of South Carolina for your review.

If we may be of any further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call or write.

Very truly yours,

Timothy G. Quinn
Senior Assistant Attorney General
