Dear Mr. Collins:

You have asked for an opinion as to the legal status of the Newberry County Development Board.

The Board was created by Act No. 721 of 1958 by the General Assembly. It is clear that the Act provides that the financing of the Board's activities will be by dues paid by the members of the Board. It is equally clear that the Development Board is an agency of the County and not a political subdivision of the State of South Carolina.

Sincerely yours,

A. Camden Lewis
Assistant Attorney General
