

1974 WL 27892 (S.C.A.G.)

Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

July 29, 1974

*1 Mr. Harold Rudnick
P. O. Box 544
Aiken, SC 29801

Dear Mr. Rudnick:

Attorney General McLeod referred to me your letter requesting information concerning the residency requirement found in the Reapportionment Act. Unfortunately, I have not been able to reply until now because of the priority given to cases in litigation and requests from agencies and political subdivisions; but, your question is still timely since you are concerned about your qualifications if you won the primary or if you intend to wage a write-in candidacy should you have lost the primary. In answer to your question, in my opinion, Article 3, Section 7 of the Constitution of South Carolina does not limit the qualifications for the House of Representatives to those found in this particular section alone.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

Hardwick Stuart, Jr.
Assistant Attorney General
