Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

February 22, 1973

*1 The Honorable Lucius O. Porth
Member
House of Representatives
Lexington County
Route 2, Box 108-A
Lexington, South Carolina 29072

Dear Mr. Porth:

You recently inquired as to whether or not '(c) Money Allocations' can be expended for the purpose of adding sidewalks to a previously paved secondary road.

In my opinion, this is clearly a proper expenditure for highway purposes. The sidewalk is a part of the highway system as defined by the statutes of South Carolina. Section 33-1, Code of Laws, 1962. The fact that the sidewalks are added subsequent to the laying down of the paved portion is, in my opinion, of no material significance.

Cordially,

Daniel R. McLeod
Attorney General
