Dear Tom:

Inasmuch as a possibility of reverter or right of entry is not alienable, I do not believe that the School District can properly convey the release of such interest to the Forestry Commission. The release by the heirs should be to the Commission.

Moreover, with respect to the minor's interest, I now question the jurisdiction of a court to order the conveyance to the Commission of that interest. Perhaps it can do so, but I am unaware of any law permitting it. You should, therefore, look into that issue before proceeding with an action to bring about a release of that interest.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

C. Tolbert Goolsby, Jr.
Deputy Attorney General
