Dear Mr. Conoley:

Thank you for your letter of December 19, 1973, concerning the validity of the practice whereby retail merchant proposes to open his store on Sundays for the purpose of display only of his products to passers-by and other potential customers. In my opinion this procedure would be violative of the Sunday closing statute. And I am enclosing herewith copies of opinions previously released which set forth the basis of this conclusion in more detail.

With best wishes,

Daniel R. McLeod
Attorney General
