

1972 WL 25175 (S.C.A.G.)

Office of the Attorney General

State of South Carolina

January 13, 1972

*1 The Honorable T. Edmond Garrison
Senator
Anderson County
Route 2
Anderson, South Carolina

Dear Ed:

You asked that I advise you concerning the manner of settling a boundary dispute between two counties.

The answer to it is that a legal action would be necessary. If a survey is shown to be needed, the court would probably order the survey to be made by a surveyor or surveyors, with the cost of the survey being paid by each of the contending parties. A statute provides for a method of having surveyors appointed; but if the parties agree on a surveyor, it is probably not necessary to follow this particular statute. It is cited as Section 57-452, 1962 Code of Laws of S. C.

With all best wishes,
Very truly yours,

Daniel R. McLeod
